HOTEL / VENUE CONTRACTS

RFQ #0205-2025-0001

April 21, 2025

If a government purchase order is not sufficient for entering into this agreement, then judiciary procurement regulations require the following in any commercial use agreement:

- a. Credit application/Master account credit provisions are not applicable to the judiciary and must be deleted;
- b. Attorney fees included in the agreement cannot be accepted;
- c. Automatic renewals of agreement provisions that automatically renew the agreement from year-to-year;
- d. Payments in advance cannot be accepted as a provision;
- e. The Judiciary, as a federal entity, is immune from paying taxes and any requirement for such must be removed;
- f. Insurance provisions must be removed because the Judiciary is self-insured;
- g. Indemnification and/or Hold Harmless provisions must be replaced with the following:

“Notwithstanding any other term or provision of this agreement, the liability of the Judiciary with respect to any claim for personal injury, death, property loss or damage pursuant to this agreement, is limited by and subject to the procedures and terms of the Federal Tort Claims Act, the Anti-Deficiency Act and all other applicable federal laws and regulations.”

- h. Damage deposits provisions must be removed since the above paragraph will cover damages to the facility.

- . The following provisions, if included, may require negotiation between the U.S. Probation & Pretrial Services and you for modification of said terms:

- 1) Governing Law
- 2) Interest
- 3) Cancellation Clauses
- 4) Subject to Change without Notice
- 5) Early Departure Fee
- 6) Food and Beverage Restrictions
- 7) Group Commitment Charges
- 8) Deposit
